AUGUST MEETING RECAP

Submitted by Marzee Woodward

Karen Hudson, President and Program Chair, introduced the House Majority Leader William Lamberth as the speaker for the evening. Lamberth is a lawyer from Sumner county representing that area.

Lamberth gave a rousing presentation that encouraged members to get out and vote for Trump. He shared information about bills that passed this year helping us become more informed citizens.

His presentation was encouraging and positive, leaving us all enthusiastic to work for the cause in the next couple of months.

RED SHOE BOOK CLUB

Submitted by Cindy Bjork, Chair

Please join us for our next Red Shoe Book Club meeting to discuss J. D. Vance's memoir, Hillbilly Elegy. Donald Trump's running mate tells the story of his chaotic upbringing amidst the backdrop of white poverty in Southern Ohio and the Appalachian hills of Kentucky - and the grandmother who inspired him to overcome his obstacles, becoming a successful Yale Law School graduate, and eventually the Governor of Ohio and the current Republican Vice-Presidential running mate.

An excerpt from Hillbilly Elegy: "There was, and still is, a sense that those who make it are of two varieties. The first are lucky: They come from wealthy families with connections, and their lives were set from the moment they were born. The second are the meritocratic: They were born with brains and couldn't fail if they tried. Because very few in Middletown fall into the former category, people assume that everyone who makes it is just really smart. To the average Middletonian, hard work doesn't matter as much as raw talent. You can walk through a town where 30 percent of the young men work fewer than twenty hours a week and find not a single person aware of his own laziness."

CAMPAIGNS AND VOLUNTEERING

Ms. Alden Haun, a field representative for the House Republican Caucus races in Rutherford County is working with the campaigns of Mike Sparks and Robert Stevens.

She is looking for volunteers interested in door-knocking. She needs volunteers available between now and early November. Members who want to door-knock will be added to her i360 app, giving them access to different walk books for each campaign and a script to follow when talking to voters. She will also give volunteers candidate information cards to leave at each house.

Each vote counts in these races. The grassroots campaign is essential to securing our candidates' seats.

Please contact Alden to volunteer and with any questions: Kataldenh@gmail.com or 865.963.5941

MY FAITH VOTES

My Faith Votes (MFV) is a non-partisan movement of FAITH in Action that motivates, equips, and activates Christians to vote. It's a multi-channel approach that encourages Christians to vote through a combination of digital ads and personalized handwritten letters. These efforts have shown a 57% lift in voter turnout!

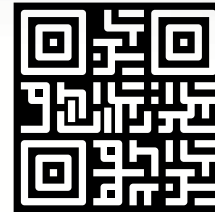

Encouraging someone to vote is easier than you might think. MFV has done the research, all you have to do is write! They have identified Christians who are pro-life and pro-traditional family but who are unlikely to vote. We need your help to contact them before Election Day on November 5!

All members of RWRC are invited to meet at HQ to write letters together! Saturday, September 14 at 11:00am

If you'd like to get started writing letters right away, here are the instructions to sign up!

1. Click the QR code - at the website, click "Start Write Now"
2. On the next page click the "Start Writing" box

8. Address and stamp envelopes from your downloaded list
9. Mail after October 1 and before October 25.

Questions? Please contact Rhonda Wisser or Karen Ferguson

IMPORTANT COMMENTARY FROM A FELLOW CHRISTIAN

This November, Christians have an incredible opportunity to set our country on the right path. It is imperative for each of us to vote. The issues we face are serious. Transgender ideology has infected our children's schools. Grocery bills are painfully high. Violent criminals are being allowed into our country daily, victimizing so many innocent Americans--especially women and girls. Christian values are being silenced and slandered.

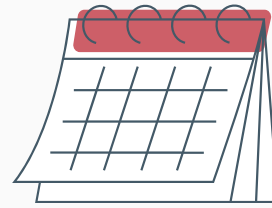

People of faith are outraged, and they should be. But the sad reality is that 1 in 3 Christians doesn't vote regularly. And when Christians don't show up at the ballot box – the secular world will. Jesus told us, "You are the light of the world." Our culture seems to be growing darker and darker. But our light can dispel the darkness and push back against the evil. Voting is one way to bring light into this world.

I'm not going to tell you who to vote for. That's up to you. But I will ask you to pray over this election, and to show up and vote. Show up as a Christian and as an American.

More than anything, please be in prayer, as I am, that Christians will stand up, vote in record numbers, and elect leaders who will defend biblical truth and the families who live by it. I encourage you to review a Christian Voter Guide at www.myfaithvotes.org.
