OCTOBER MEETING INVITE

OCTOBER 15, 2024 6PM

CARRIAGE LANE INN - 337 East Burton Street

You are invited to join us for a delicious dinner and to hear from Lizzette Reynolds who currently serves as Tennessee’s Commissioner of Education. Reynolds was sworn in on June 29, 2023, and during her tenure the Tennessee Department of Education has implemented strong literacy and learning acceleration policies. These policies have led to historic academic gains thanks to the hard work of districts, administrators, and families, as student scores rebound from impacts of the pandemic. Join us to welcome Lizzette Reynolds to RWRC!

Reservations and meal payments are due by October 10 at 5 pm. You can sign up and prepay by clicking the link below:

SEPTEMBER MEETING RECAP

Submitted by Karen Ferguson

RWRC President and Program Chair, Karen Hudson, introduced John DeBerry as the speaker for the evening. DeBerry is a preacher and veteran politician who represented the 90th House District of Tennessee from 1995-2020, and currently serves as Governor Lee's Senior Advisor.

DeBerry gave a passionate and powerful speech about refusing to take the path of least resistance and instead stand up, speak up, and show up to vote in policies and values that will benefit our grandchildren. DeBerry believes that a proper understanding of our history is key to taking back our freedoms.

His insightful and informative presentation energized the crowd and was a great encouragement to continue to work hard for the cause!

RED SHOE BOOK CLUB

Submitted by Cindy Bjork, Chair

Highlights from book, Hillbilly Elegy:

“There is a lack of agency here—a feeling that you have little control over your life and a willingness to blame everyone but yourself.”
p.7

“Students don’t expect much from themselves, because the people around them don’t do very much. Twenty percent of freshmen won’t make it to graduation.” p.56

“Many folks talk about working more than they actually work.” p.57

“I came a little closer to believing in myself. Psychologists call it “learned helplessness” when a person believes, as I did during my youth, that the choices I made had no effect on the outcomes in my life. From Middletown’s world of small expectations to the constant chaos of our home, life had taught me that I had no control. Mamaw and Papaw had saved me from succumbing entirely to that notion, and the Marine Corp broke new ground. If I had learned helplessness at home the Marines were teaching earned willfulness.” p. 163

“For the first time in my life, I felt like an outsider in Middletown. And what turned me into an alien was my optimism.” p.195

“When considering the reasons why he and certain family members were successful, Vance refers to the many “thumbs” put on their scales and the interventions that had to fall into place. “Each benefitted from the same types of experiences in one way or another. They had a family member they could count on. And they saw—from a family friend, an uncle, or a work mentor—what was available and what was possible.” p. 241

The purpose of a Red Shoe Book Club:
“To increase our knowledge, and share understanding of important Republican issues and our American heritage.”

The next Red Shoe Book Club meeting will be announced soon!

MY FAITH VOTES

My Faith Votes (MFV) is a non-partisan movement of FAITH in Action that motivates, equips, and activates Christians to vote. It's a multi-channel approach that encourages Christians to vote through a combination of digital ads and personalized handwritten letters. These efforts have shown a 57% lift in voter turnout!

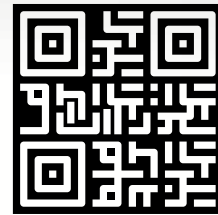

Encouraging someone to vote is easier than you might think. MFV has done the research, all you have to do is write! They have identified Christians who are pro-life and pro-traditional family but who are unlikely to vote. We need your help to contact them before Election Day on November 5!

All members of RWRC are invited to meet at HQ to write letters together!
Saturday, October 5 from 12-2pm

Questions? Please contact Rhonda Wisner or Karen Ferguson

IMPORTANT COMMENTARY FROM A FELLOW CHRISTIAN

This November, Christians have an incredible opportunity to set our country on the right path. It is imperative for each of us to vote. The issues we face are serious. Transgender ideology has infected our children's schools. Grocery bills are painfully high. Violent criminals are being allowed into our country daily, victimizing so many innocent Americans--especially women and girls. Christian values are being silenced and slandered.

People of faith are outraged, and they should be. But the sad reality is that 1 in 3 Christians doesn't vote regularly. And when Christians don't show up at the ballot box – the secular world will. Jesus told us, "You are the light of the world." Our culture seems to be growing darker and darker. But our light can dispel the darkness and push back against the evil. Voting is one way to bring light into this world.

I'm not going to tell you who to vote for. That's up to you. But I will ask you to pray over this election, and to show up and vote. Show up as a Christian and as an American.

More than anything, please be in prayer, as I am, that Christians will stand up, vote in record numbers, and elect leaders who will defend biblical truth and the families who live by it. I encourage you to review a Christian Voter Guide at www.myfaithvotes.org.
